Books:

The executive is really trying to find some common interests. One of our thoughts was books. There has to be a total disclaimer on this subject. If someone loved a book and you bought it because we listed it and you hated said book...donate it to someone you don't like but don't come back on us.

Having made that clear, here are some recommendations:

HOME COMING by Kate Morton

LITTLE FIRES EVERYWHERE by Celeste Ng

Travellog:

Bob and I recently took a cruise to Alaska. Not really on my list but should have been.

According to the native Alaskans we had amazing weather. No rain or snow...lots of sun. The port towns were full of things to do and great eats. We cruised in Glacier National Park where you have close views of turquoise glaciers and many sea critters.

Share your trip? Send me an email.
